Meet the Challenge!

The 23rd Annual Book Sale (2011) raised over $23,700, thanks to our many energetic volunteers. With smaller sales across 2011, it was a successful year with over $31,000 raised. Regular smaller sales keep our sorting house volunteers and directors busy: Blow-Out Sale (January), Spring Sale (April), summer Outdoor Sales (June) & in conjunction with the KGH Auxiliary, 2-day book sales had been conducted in the Kelowna General Hospital old foyer.

Volume 34 Summer 2012

What happens to funds raised at Friends Book Sales?

In May each year FOL Directors review wish lists submitted by the branch librarians – for 2011, $13,800 and for 2012, $12,065 worth of items were approved. Foremost amongst the wishes is FOLs commitment to supporting Summer Reading Club programming – for 2011, $4500 and for 2012, $7000 – for crafts, giveaways, prizes & additional guests at the three branches.

Wish list items that have or will soon arrive at your branch include

Finally, 40% of the proceeds from our major book sales, go to ORL HQ for system-wide projects. In 2011, the allocation $15,790 was utilized towards ORL's 75th anniversary celebrations across the Okanagan & a new enhanced ORL web catalogue interface.

It's All About Our Libraries!

Look for the seasonal City of Kelowna Activity & Program Guides delivered free to most Kelowna households. The Library page highlights storytime & adult programs on offer at our three branches. All programs are free, most with no registration required. Kelowna FOL fund these seasonal ads, in a special partnership with ORL.

Summer Reading is "Strange, but True?"

Throughout the Okanagan Regional Library region, libraries are jumping with summer long activities aimed at ensuring school-aged children keep up their literacy skills with the Summer Reading Club ... and have fun doing it!. This year's Summer Reading Club (SRC) theme is "Strange...but True?" encouraging children to explore everything from myths and monsters to weird science and outer space at their local ORL branch. Friends are proud to again provide funds towards this reading club tradition with contests, prizes, crafts, workshops and special guests.

Friends across the Okanagan

FOL Directors were excited to attend an annual gathering of Okanagan Friends groups hosted by Vernon FOL in May 2012. The highlight was of course meeting in and touring the newly opened Vernon library branch located at 2800 30th Avenue. The building is a much expanded 30,000 square feet over two floors. Special features we loved include underfloor heating in the children's area, large book shape lounge chairs, soundproof recycled rubber floors, warm bright & welcoming community meeting spaces

At a September 2011 meeting at ORL Headquarters in Kelowna, Okanagan Friends groups contributed to the design of new Support your ORL fliers, Friends of Library logos and new ORL book bags. We thank Marla O'Brien, ORL's Public Relations Officer for her enthusiasm in promoting Okanagan Friends groups.

The grapevine has it that directors on the Kelowna Friends board in 2013 can look forward to special treats as the annual gathering will be next hosted by Naramata Friends of Library!

NEW ORL Book bags

You won't be able to resist these unique bags (double-handled, made of recycled materials) & featuring colourful photos of the Okanagan, contributed by Friends and library patrons.

An AGM Update from the Executive

As of our Annual General Meeting on Saturday 19th November 2011, a Board of 7 directors was elected, a very necessary minimum number to manage the demands of meetings; planning, organising sales and events and keeping our Barlee sorting house running smoothly.

Thanks to the 2 members who stepped up from their participation as directors to executive positions: Allen Hustad & Donna Lemire.

Welcome to Edna Allwright who joined the Board bringing experience from her participation on Library Boards in Alberta.

Many thanks to Jacky McGarry who did not stand for re-election. Her year as director, spent in organising volunteers for sales and library events and contributing ideas for promoting Friends & membership were appreciated.

We are apologetically overdue in extending our thanks to long standing director & Barlee House and Childrens sale room stalwart, Lian Couper. She with husband and member Jim, are now enjoying many marvelous adventures adding to the best of travel writing you could ever read!

And we've been struggling to come to terms with the recent resignation of director Marina Zeipper. Marina has for more than 10 years been the director responsible for monitoring FOLs email account, designing & distributing publicity, co-editing this newsletter, pulling together the sale volunteer lists, launching our Facebook presence and so much more. Once she gets through some life challenges, Marina was keen to reassure us she will be volunteering at sales.

2012 Board of Directors

Executive:

Allen Hustad – President
Ursula Wedemeyer – Vice President & (acting) Membership
Donna Lemire – Secretary
Shelley Barrow – Treasurer

Directors:

Edna Allwright
Michelle Ward – Immediate Past President

New Board Meeting Time

Directors meet at 1pm, on the second Monday of each month (except July & August). Meeting venue is the second floor Group Study Room at the Kelowna branch.

AGM 2012 is set for the morning of
Saturday November 24
Kelowna branch main meeting room.

Donations accepted ... with exceptions

Stock for our Book Sales comes from ORL's withdrawal program and publicly donated books. We accept books in GOOD CONDITION. Buyers at sales will not buy books in poor condition or that contain out-of-date information. After sales we do distribute some leftover books to schools, seniors facilities and the Kelowna Foodbank. Again it is only books in decent condition that can be accepted by these venues.

When bringing donations to our Barlee Road Sorting house, please DO NOT leave the following items:

- Books in poor condition (damaged, yellowed, written in or marked up)
- Textbooks [Okanagan Textbook Exchange on Sutherland Ave opposite Capri Mall may take recent editions]

- Videos, cassettes, records
